Guest Speaker

Simon Lelieveldt

Regulatory and Compliance Consultant & Founder of non-profit initiative Financieel Erfgoed

Simon is a business engineer and certified compliance professional with extensive experience in banking, payments, and financial supervision. He has advised fintechs and governments on regulation, compliance, and innovations like electronic money and blockchain, while also working as an interim compliance manager, strategic advisor, trainer, and media commentator.

Financial history of Amsterdam – liquidity as the secret sauce?

Simon is also the founder of the non-profit initiative Financieel Erfgoed (Financial Heritage), which aims to disseminate knowledge of Dutch financial history to the wider public, educational institutions, and the professional financial community. His motto in doing so is that the past is worth understanding, as it is always present in the now.

Designated Audience

An exclusive gathering for senior-level treasury professionals (treasurers, directors, and senior cash managers) from the Benelux region.
